

AISF FACULTY
2017-2018

Early Childhood Center
PreK and Kindergarten
Sarah Marsh

Joined the AISF Community in September 2017

Ms. Marsh has 20 years of teaching experience. She began her career teaching early childhood with 3 and 4 year olds at the St. Paul’s School in London. Music is her first love and she has combined that gift with her early childhood teaching. She is the founder and director of Musical Bumps providing music classes for families with babies and young children. From 2005 to 2013 Ms. Marsh was an Advisory Teacher for The Voices Foundation, an in-school program that teaches primary teachers to understand and deliver a progressive, skill-based music program. She has served as a music teacher since 2012 at the St. John’s Primary School in Kent. Ms. Marsh earned an MA in Early Childhood Music Education from Birmingham City University and a PGCE in Secondary Music from The Open University. She earned a Bachelor’s degree in Music from the City University of London.

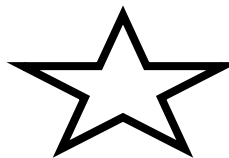

Grades 1&2

Kimberley Jane Gardner

Joined the AISF Community September 2016

Ms. Gardner has 11 years of teaching experience in the primary grades. She was most recently the teacher for children from PreK4 to Grade 1 at the Sunshine School in Jerusalem. Previously she taught Year 1 at Rygaards International School in Copenhagen, Denmark and Kindergarten and Grade 1 at the Bemerton St. John Primary School in Salisbury England. Mrs. Gardner has a Post Graduate Certificate of Education from the University of Winchester in the UK. In addition she earned a BA with Honors in Modern European Studies from Ealing College London.

Grade 3&4

Temilyn T. Tilly

Joined the AISF Community September 2016

Ms. Tilly has 5 years of teaching experience and one year as a School Counseling Intern. She taught most recently in Guatemala City where she worked with children in grades 3 and 4. Ms. Tilly served as a Special Education teacher in an elementary classroom in the Lummi Nation School in Bellingham, Washington in the US and as a school counselor at Centennial Elementary in Mt. Vernon, Washington. Ms. Tilly holds a BA in Education in Elementary and Special Needs from Western Washington University and an MA in Education in School Counseling also from Western Washington University.

Math and Science

Grades 5&6 and Grades 7&8

Abram Joseph Cosby

Joined the AISF Community in September 2015

Mr. Cosby has 12 years of teaching experience. Just before coming to AISF he taught Year 1 at the Tashkent Ulugbek School in Uzbekistan. Previously Mr. Cosby taught for 6 years, primarily in middle school, at Escuela Campo Alegre in Caracas, Venezuela and in the Wahluke School District in Washington State in the US. Mr. Cosby holds a BA in Elementary Education from Washington State University in Pullman and an MA degree in Education from the State University of New York, Buffalo. He earned a Professional Teaching Certificate from Gonzaga University in Washington. Mr. Cosby also holds an official Leadership Certificate from the Principals Training Center in Miami Florida.

English and Social Studies

Grades 5&6 and Grades 7&8

Moira Eve Henderson

Joined the AISF Community September 2015

Ms. Henderson has 8 years of teaching experience. Most recently she taught Years 6 through 10 History at Tashkent Ulugbek International School in Uzbekistan. Previously Ms. Henderson taught English and Social Studies to students from grade 5 to grade 10 in several international schools around the world: Escuela Las Morochas in Venezuela, Narmer American College in Cairo, Egypt, and Surefoot American International School in Calabar, Nigeria. Ms. Henderson has earned four Masters Degrees: University of Aberdeen 2006 in Politics and International Relations; School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London 2008 in Development Studies; Institute of Education, University of London 2012 in Education; Framingham State University, Massachusetts, US 2015 in Education. Ms. Henderson completed a postgraduate and US Certification course, Teach Now, through the Teach Now Organization in Washington DC in 2016.

Grade 9 Pilot
University of Nebraska High School Proctor
Literature and Writing Enrichment/Geography Support
Lucy Stansfield
Joined AISF Community in September 2017

Ms. Stansfield has 3 years of teaching experience and has also done extensive tutoring for both GCSE and A Level examinations in the UK. Most recently she taught World Literature and English Language and also IB English Literature and Language at the Sandford International School in Addis Ababa. From 2009 to 2011 Ms. Stansfield was Deputy Head of English at the Emanuel School in Battersea Rise, London. She earned a BA with Honors at Grey College at the University of Durham and a PGCE in Secondary English at Homerton College at the University of Cambridge. Ms. Stansfield will be in charge of the online University of Nebraska High School Program and will also provide enrichment in literature.

Grade 9 Pilot
Service Learning and Cultural Exploration
Biology Enrichment/Algebra Support
Derrick Zamzow
Joined the AISF Community in September 2017

Mr. Zamzow taught science and math as a Peace Corps volunteer in Sierra Leone in 2013 and 2014. He returned to Sierra Leone as a Response Volunteer in 2016 again teaching science and math while also collaborating with counterparts to implement best teaching practices. He earned a BS in Biology from the University of Wisconsin 2012 and worked as a phlebotomist in Madison, Wisconsin before joining the Peace Corps. Mr. Zamzow has extensive experience as a youth camp counselor, leading numerous back country hiking and camping experiences.

Director
Irene Epp
Joined AISF in August 2015

Dr. Irene has been a Head of School in Africa since 2000. She began as a director in Bamako, Mali and served subsequently as director at the American International School of Lusaka, the American School of Kinshasa, and now here at AISF. Previously she served as a high school administrator at the International School of Kuala Lumpur and at Cairo American College. She taught AP English at the American International School of Dhaka. Ms. Epp served as Deputy Head of School at the Santa Fe Preparatory School in Santa Fe, New Mexico. She earned a PhD in Literature at the University of Colorado, Boulder.